Personal data we process

Carnival of Creation processes your personal data when you use one of our services and/or you provided this data to us yourself. Below is a summary of the personal data we process:

- A unique code that identifies the device you are using (PC/laptop)
- Your Steam username
- Your gameplay activity and match results
- Your IP-address

With which purpose and on which grounds do we process personal data

Carnival of Creation processes your personal data when you have given permission to us for the following purpose:

- To verify that you either own Horns of Justice, or are granted an evaluation license to participate in a playtest.
- To analyze (aggregated) gameplay statistics and improve gameplay balancing and general player experience.

Automated decisions

Carnival of Creation does not take decisions based on automated processing that can have (substantial) impact on persons. This refers to decisions that are taken by a computer program or system, without a person (for instance an employee of Carnival of Creation) being an active part of this process.

How long do we store personal data

Carnival of Creation stores your personal data no longer than is strictly necessary to attain the goals for which your personal data is collected. We use these periods of storage for the following (categories) of personal data:

- Account and session data: This data is stored as long as the game is available, allowing players to view their own statistics and continue playing on their existing account.

Sharing personal data with third parties

Carnival of Creation only shares data with third parties if this is necessary for executing the agreement with you or to adhere to legal obligations.

Carnival of Creation only shares data with third parties outside of the EU if this is necessary for executing the agreement with you or to adhere to legal obligations.

Unity Analytics

Carnival of Creation uses Unity Analytics to track the number of users that play the game, and game-specific data like how many users reach a certain story chapter. Information about instability such as crashes is also collected.

We use this data to optimize the playing experience for you as a player, and to prevent the game from being unplayable.

For more information about what data is collected via Unity Analytics we refer you to Unity's privacy policy:

<https://unity3d.com/legal/privacy-policy>

View, modify or delete data

You have the right to view, correct or delete your personal data. You also have the right to withdraw your consent to the data processing or to object to the processing of your personal data by Carnival of Creation and you have the right to data portability.

This means that you can submit a request to us to send the personal information we have in your computer file to you or another organization mentioned by you. You can send a request for access, correction, deletion, data transfer of your personal data or request for withdrawal of your consent or objection to the processing of your personal data to info@hornsofjustice.com.

To ensure that the request for access has been made by you, we ask you to send a copy of your ID with the request. Make your passport photo, MRZ (machine readable zone, the strip with numbers at the bottom of the passport), passport number and Citizen Service Number black in this copy. This is to protect your privacy. We respond as quickly as possible, but within four weeks, at your request.

Carnival of Creation also wants to point out that you have the opportunity to file a complaint with the national supervisory authority, the Dutch Data Protection Authority. This can be done via the following link: <https://autoriteitpersoonsgegevens.nl/en>.

How we protect personal data

Carnival of Creation takes the protection of your data seriously and takes appropriate measures to prevent misuse, loss, unauthorized access, unwanted disclosure and unauthorized modification. If you feel that your data is not properly secured or there are indications of abuse, please contact our customer service or via info@hornsofjustice.com
